Demand Attribution Update

Demand Attribution Issues Update

Interim Step

- An interim early warning mechanism has been introduced to reduce the length of time any failure has on the Demand Attribution process.

Enduring Work

- Our service integration supplier has been engaged and produced a detailed review of failures

- Meetings have taken place with key system owners and a workshop is taking place today to identify potential improvements.